Global migration

Between 2010 and 2015, Northern America, Europe and Oceania had a net inflow of over 2 million immigrants per year. UN believes international migration to be a positive force for the economic and social development of the world.

The highest volume of overall net migration could be seen between 2000 and 2010.

Between 2010 and 2015, statistics showed a decrease in magnitude of migration.
